To the Class of 2006:

We were a class that blazed our own trail. We were the first class to experience lunch in the courtyard, the new SATs, and the new driving laws. We were the last class to enter the school with no freshmen academies, and the last to have activity period and free parking.

Together we endured eight periods as seniors, two additional days of school, and swarms of bees ambushing our lunches. For some, the unimaginable came true, and for others, dreams are only beginning to appear. Whether we realize it or not, we have all grown over the past four years. As we move on with our lives and live our future, let's take the time to look back and remember our high school years filled with

Everything You Never Expected

2006 Yearbook Dedication:

MRS. WIMER

There are many members of our faculty who are great teachers, as well as great friends to their students. But ask various people in the school, and most will agree that Mrs. Wimer has a unique way of showing how much she cares. Plus, she gives some of the best hugs!

Nancy Wimer was born in Port Jervis, New York, and graduated from Port Jervis High School. She has received many degrees from various colleges and universities, including an Associates Degree in Data Processing, a Bachelors Degree in Secondary Mathematics Education, and a Masters of Science Degree in Secondary Education. The schools that she attended to obtain these degrees include Orange County Community College, The State University College at Oneonta, and Central Connecticut State University. Beyond these accomplishments, she received her Sixth Year in Multi-cultural Education from The University of Connecticut.

Next year will be her twentieth year teaching, which combines two years at Port Jervis Middle School in New York, twelve years at East Hartford High School, and five years here in South Windsor. She has become very involved in various activities, including the very successful "Every 15 Minutes" program, and she is a religious education teacher at St. Bartholomew's Church in Manchester. In addition, Mrs. Wimer has been a class advisor, and is popular with the students for her heartwarming smile and positive attitude.

Outside of school, she loves to read, travel, and listen to music. She has a loving family, including husband David, 9 year old daughter Emily, and 7 year old son Evan. She also has four cats, named Tiger, Angel, Peekaboo, and Marbles.

Even if you have never had Mrs. Wimer for a teacher, most know her for her incredibly welcoming attitude. She is willing to befriend anyone and everyone. Students who have been in her class go on to say that she is great at what she is here to do: get her students to succeed in a subject that can often prove to be a challenge. There has been mention of her patience, motivation, and enthusiasm towards the success of each and every one of her students. Many would agree that without Mrs. Wimer on the staff, South Windsor High School just wouldn't have as much brightness in each day. So this year,

Mrs. Wimer,

I can't believe it's over...To my girls Dayna, Stef, Alison, Erika and Steph Papa, you guys made this the best experience I could ever imagine. Dayna you truly are my best friend. From freshman year till now it always has and always will be a crazy good time. Stef and Alison so many fun times with the riders. Bonfires, driving around aimlessly, Ryan's lake, my house before going out every night, Scotty's, Danny's, Prom 04', and 05', Erik's garage, and always the best random adventures.

Erika freshman year we were inseparable, sneaking out at 2 A.M. every night. Stef, Alison, and Steph Papa junior year it was all of us. I couldn't have asked for better friends. To the riders you guys made my high school years the greatest. I love you Erik. To Jen and Michelle, I learned from the best. Thanks for the memories it's been real Sdub.

Heather Andisio

"..Did you ever notice how sometimes you take for granted what you need, like having friends and good times and never losing touch?.."-Saves the Day

Manda B. - you're the funniest person in the world and the best friend anyone could have. I never thought I'd be friends with someone for 17 years, and longer. You've always been there for me even through the hardest times in my life. Thank you. We've had so many great and funny times. Especially when you thought it would be cool to put salt on a slug and watch it melt. Or when we pretended to be lobsters and painted ourselves red and glued lobster parts to our bodies. Or even when you left your phone on the burner and it melted. But pretending to be Harriet the spy like every day was the best. You're funny Amanda, and thanks for being such a great friend.

Adam Soltoski - eye heart you.

High school is played out like a poor soap opera, cast under bleak four cent lights. Who ever thought that four years in this place would actually fly by so fast? These brick walls bare our memories of laughter, drama, and tears. Do you remember all of our nonsense in Chem. Class? I do. It seems as though all of those late nights, trips to Subway, and "mental health days" got us through. I have met the most extraordinary people that I can't believe I lived without, and people that I wish I never met to begin with. My friends: I love you all dearly. Thank you to the Rogoffs, my second family; Chel, Mama Lynn, Mr. Bill and Erik; be good noob! Mom thank you for putting up with me. I love you.

Tom Bates

First and foremost I would like to thank my parents and my family for everything they have ever done for me. And to the friends I have made during my years at school: the good times we have shared together are priceless. I don't think I need to name names because you should know who you are, and you know why the times were good. Congrats to the Class of 2006. I hope everyone was able to take something positive from this experience and good luck in the future. Cheers to a new chapter of our lives.

Erin Barrett

I would have never thought 4 years would go by so fast. It's crazy to leave the people I have grown up with these past 17 years. To the sisterhood: Jen, Sara, Abby, Steph, and Alex, you guys are responsible for so many good times. BSB, Prom, FKOC, Homecoming, Chinese fire drills, summer, bio, black Bandits, being completely random: the best moments of my life. Jess, thanks for being there when it mattered. Britt, Kris, and Gina: fun since OH. To the rest of my friends: thanks for the memories. "Even though for now we've got to say goodbye, I know you will be forever in my life." Mom and Dad, you are the best parents a girl could have, thanks for supporting me in anything and everything I did. To Chris and Tim, thanks for paving the way and being my big brothers. to the Class of 2006- best of luck.

Lauren M. Barrett

It's sad to see it go...To the few that have been true I love you, Danielle, you've been there through it all and I love you more than life, no matter what has happened you've been there. To my family, Mom, Dad, Amy, Jenna if it weren't for you nothing would have been possible. I wouldn't have made it here. To my little sister and best friend, Jaye, I love you baby. Left to SWHS: Jaye, Kristin, n of course Dayna. Keep it real, stay true to yourself and listen to your heart. My years here have been unforgettable and I'm thankful for all I've got...but I couldn't wait for it to end.

Emilee Beaudoin

I'm so thankful that I got to spend these past four years with the people who mean the most to me. I couldn't have asked for better friends, you're all truly irreplaceable. "Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take but by the moments that take our breath away." These four years of high school have gone by relatively quickly, but it's been these last two that have flown by. The greatest memories include Prom '05 and bonfires with the gang...my best buds Matthew, Kevin, Vanessa, Shane, Jes, Katy, Becca, Sam and a few more. But, there's no way I could forget Ashleigh; we went through so much together! Those grueling, late nights training to become ski patrollers...well, WE MADE IT! Can't wait to see what the future brings all of us! I LOVE all you guys! Special thanks have to go to my family Evan, Olivia, Lauren, Meme, Botchie, Dad and especially Mom. They constantly support me in my decisions and I thank them with all my heart! XOXO

Matthew Bolduc

Bolduc, Matt

These past four years were the best years of my life. There were many great times with Joe Show, Straight Outta Compton, Soup, Cameron, Willy, Goldsborough and the rest of those boys. Between MNFC, pool party, and fight club there were good enough memories for a lifetime. Then there was Cusson, Jerry, Deese, Steve, Bobby, Bennet, and Kela. Trips to Glastonbury, bonfires, Deese's basement, the summer camper, dumb and dumber, and the night of kings were just a few of the amazing times we had. Thank you so much for making high school worthwhile. Mel, you were a big part of my life through all of high school. Thanks for all the love and happiness that we shared together. You were always there for me and we had such great times. Thanks to my family and good luck to all my fellow classmates.

Amanda Boulet

Four years have gone by, and now it's expected of me to write one last message to the Class of '06. To go on and on about inside jokes with my friends, or the great times we had together would be boring and almost cliché. That's not what I'm going for. I want my last message to mean something, so here it goes: I've learned a lot these past four years. About myself, about others, about who I want to be and, more importantly, who I don't want to be. I'm not going to say it's been easy and fun. But I can say that it was definitely worth it. So good luck to everyone. I hope you got as much out of this experience they call high school as I did. Oh yea, and Heather's the best. "And then she came, and then we left."

Ashleigh Boyer

A.Boy, Ash, Munky

The last four years wouldn't be so memorable if it wasn't for the people and the memories. Maine, shenanigans, concerts, Granby, dance parties, ski patrol, jibbin', random driving...Firstly, Jeff, you made me who I am and I can never forget that. Katie Leigh, there's so much I can never forget, girl. Josh, my love, you push me along even after I've lost all hope. Jennie, Rachel, Eric, Cyrus, Maya, and Best of luck in everything you do. To the Bis Bunch, the ski trips are unforgettable. Marvie and the RO, you've taken me in and given me a new definition of family. Mo, your friendship has already brought me far in life. And Zac, your constant disapproval has kept me in line, but that stays between us. Finally, Mom and Dad, every bump in the road has brought more good out of me than I ever thought possible. One day I'll really make u proud.

Kaci Brandes

These past four years have been very interesting, from prom and all the way to the wonderful football games. I People, you know what I am talking about...I have lost and gained friendships with very interesting people that I will never forget. I wish I could name you all but that would take up my whole write-up. Lauren and Alisha, the movies have been awesome, even though you made me sit through Saw 2. I want to give a shout out to the breakfast club, Kathy, Lindsay, Bethany, Brittany, Kim, and Lauren; we always have to wake up against our will, thanks Kim! Now for a mushy moment, I will miss you all terribly. I sometimes wish that it wouldn't end but all good things come to an end. So the only thing left to say is, Toodles Seniors of 2006. We finally made it!!!

Steve Briere

Thinking back on the past four years of high school all I can say is it's been fun. All the new things that I had to go through and strive to do my best and to make all the friends that I have still to this day. Having the best friends that I have is pretty cool. All things that we have done in the past four years have been fun. Prom 2005 that was fun. Want to say thanks to my friends Matt, Emily, Alex, Chris, Mike, and everyone else. I would also like to thank my mom, and my step-dad.

Mike Bronsord

Wow, those 4 years just flew by. Thanks to my family, Mom and Rich, Sarah, Ben and Evan, Grandma and Grandpa, and all the rest. To all my boys, it's been fun guys. ## James Budarz

I want everyone to remember the foolish, mindless, regrettable, yet ultimately fun things we did over these four years of high school. Here is my advice to those people who have helped me hate high school just a little less: Continue to live life as you see fit, finding happiness where you will, and never giving to others control of your life. Never follow others blindly down a path they wish upon you. When others force you to live in a way that you believe is wrong, revolt and give them no more authority over you. This is the one right, if any, you possess.

Wow! I can't believe I survived all four years of unforgettable memories that have gone by so fast. Where do I start? The Prom, the movie nights, our shopping sprees, the parties, the concerts, they are unforgettable. The long talks about everything and nothing, the Ukrainian and Polish connections, and just hanging out with all of you, I will never forget. Many other special times with my forever friends, you know who you are. The hundreds of pictures we took will keep the memories fresh and they won't ever change no matter how far away we might be. There will always be a special place in my heart for all of you who put a smile on my face. Mom, Dad, Magda and Maciej, thanks for everything. My past four years. What can I say? I have had so much fun, the friendships that I have gained, and the knowledge that I have won speaks for itself. South Windsor High has been the place that I have matured, and it has made me ready to leave and venture off, and explore the "real world." When you think of it, it's pretty scary! For that I want to thank all of my teachers and friends. So: Zach, Lauren, Jordan, Lindsey, Nina, Kim, and Shital- "the study café crew" thanks. Thanks to Mrs. G, Mrs. M, Dr. Pand Mrs. B- you've helped greatly. Mom and Dad thanks for being there. Elizabeth, my sister is graduating in 2008.

Krystal Butler

These past 4 years have gone by so fast. With each year unique, we've all had our share of good times. Such as getting over being freshmen and moving on as upperclassmen, acting superior towards the freshmen we once were, and finally maturing into seniors, and developing senioritis for our last year. So many memories I will never forget. Caroline, we always had the most interesting conversations in Mrs. Bushey's. Becca, I always looked forward to chatting with you on the "bus rides" and sharing our complaints for the day. Danielle, you were never more than a "yard" away from me my whole life. Different colleges will be tough, but I know our friendship will never end. I feel so lucky to have grown up with such good friends by my side: Jaymee, Brittany, Ashley, and of course the one person who has been like a sister to me, Caitlin. I would like to thank my parents for being there for me these 4 challenging years. I realize what a rough ride it was for you as well. Wally, you have been a tough act to follow. Especially: all those lockout days sprinting to your truck and keeping me on my toes! I can't thank you enough for the memories, support, and love you've all given me over the years.

Christal Carnelli

Matt- You have motivated me, inspired me, challenged me and generally made me a happy person, thank you so much. I love you. I don't know what the future will hold but I know that we have dreamt of it, and together I hope we can make it happen. Stay strong no matter what. To the underclassmen, always believe in yourselves, you can do anything! Good luck to the Class of 06... SJC here I come!

This was from the movie The Girl Next Door. My mistake. I will always remember the ultimate weight team for track who were Willy, Arch, Sunni, Garvey, and I. It was a good run even though we were not very good, with the exception of Arch...maybe. I also have to thank my Mom, Dad, and Charlie who will continue to support me like they have been throughout my high school career. I will never forget it. As for the rest of the senior class, I hope everyone cherishes their memories and will welcome the new future, SWHS is a chapter in our life, But college is the next installment in our education saga.

Christa Feeney

Well, it's finally over. For the past few years I have learned so much about myself. I've learned the value and meaning of true friendship, and what it is to be in love. I have never once regretted anything that I've experienced, because all things happen for a reason. The most beautiful thing of it all is the memories which I have shared with my friends. If I could, I would try and write everything about the times that I have shared with each one of you, but there is no amount of words that could possibly express the last four years with all of you. All of you have brought more love in my life that I can sometimes handle. But I like it a lot. To my family, I thank you for believing in me through my blossoming singing career and everything else. Mr. Harak, you are much more than I could ever ask for in a teacher. I don't just consider you my teacher, I consider you my friend. And last but not least, to my love Ryan, you're my biggest fan and I'll love you forever. So that's it. Another chapter closed, and on to the next one...College.

"Forget Regret." These past four years have been an insane roller coaster of emotion. From the good times to the bad, my friends have always been there for me. You all know who you are and I love you for being yourselves. Thanks to my family for providing support when I most need it and lecturing me back into reality. Now that this annoying game of lies is over, life can finally begin. Good luck to the Class of 2006 and remember, "Real knowledge is to know the extent of one's ignorance." At last, you have the opportunity to leave this place and at last become the person you are.

Jessica Goldfarb

Let me just say that these past four years were awesome! I have gone from a freshman with absolutely no self-esteem to a senior who can proudly say, "I love who I have become!" Meg, you're the best! I have to say that you're the reason I'm no longer shy. PS. Yeah Rent will always rock! Mimi, you're the craziest person I will ever meet...how many miles should I run today? Je t'aime! Alex, your dog is a menace to my life! Joe, you're amazing, end of story. I am so glad to have found such strong connections with incredible people like you guys. Cherokee people...Marissa that was the best study group ever! Cheryl and Julie, Screwly Seniors in the class of "Oh Six" all the way! Jennie, Seth, Amanda, Danielle, Allie, Jackie, Nike, Peanut, you're some cool kids! I wish everyone luck in all that you do! L'chiam!

Caroline Golino

I've come to realize, I'm just living life on an endless highway, I've lived, loved, and learned. My life has changed, in these hallways. After these four years, I've done more than I could have ever wished. I've conquered many of my fears, and had times that will be cherished. I would have never had so much fun, if it wasn't for all my friends. I don't know what I would have done, without all the crazy weekends. So now that it's time to reflect on the past, I wouldn't change a thing, I know all these memories will last.

Paul Gottier

Julie Gusy

There are many personalities that I found in myself for the years I've been here some I'd like to forget, some I love and want to keep. My favorite personality I found in me isn't really a personality but it feels like one... it's that I can smile and laugh around people that love me and respect me, and make me who I am today. The few people I have to thank for that are Marge Urquhart you are amazing, and I know we are going to be friends for life. Shanimal I love you sis you complete me. Krystal Roule you are my inspiration to not give up. Alisha Pearson and Brittany Schowen like I said you gals are my serious caffeine in the morning I love you two! Andy Lincoln I love you. Remercie des amis qui font veulent me danser!

Monica Hamilton

"I hope you had the time of your life." High school has been an incredible experience. To all my friends: thank you so much! ## Katharine Hannon

To my Co-cap'n: Disney World will always be our Mecca. One in two billion chance, but thank God we have each other to deal. Thank you for all the wonderful discussions and good times and for always being there. If life ever gets too hard, we can always escape on the Spicy Dollar. To Kevin: You have made me happier and more content than I have ever been. You inspire me every day. May we never stop learning from one another. I love you to the moon and back forever and always. To my friends at all the get-togethers, poker parties, and birthdays: you've brought immeasurable joy to these four years, and I thank you for staying true. When you think back to high school, may you remember not the petty fights and stress, but prom night, or the English book you secretly loved. Best of luck in the future.

Weldon Lemar Harris Jr.

I did not start my high school career here, but I am very glad I ended it here. Our high school years flew by. They say these are the best four years of our life. But this only marks the beginning of the rest of our lives. College and work will bring us farther apart but we will always remember these days, whether they were good or bad. I will never forget the memories I had with some of the best people ever. From Prom to parties, movies to shopping, and our Ukranian- Polish connection. NK, AK, PB. Late nights, long talks, concerts, Halloween parties, lazy summer days, and vacations. Thanks you so much for the memories Class of 2006! To all my friends and family, both past and present, thanks for making me who I am today.

Kyle Kernan

I just had to write it, in appreciation of Matthew McConaghey, from "Dazed and Confused". "That's what I love about theses high school girls man, I keep getting older, they stay the same age." I hope I don't say that a year from now but I owe a lot to Matthew, and to Mr. Cruise, and to Mr. Pitt. But I owe a whole lot to movies altogether over these past four years, they have been there for me through rain and shine. Anyway I have to give much love out to my Mom, for staying strong all of these years, and to my brother, you're a shrimp but I love you, to my sister, yes to my sister, and to some of my close high school friends, Joe for setting me straight, Bill for slapping me silly, and Chris for setting the mood right. And the Cameron, you didn't spend senior year here, but you have been my ambassador of kwon.

Danielle Kimber

Thanks to Dan, without you, my SW experience would never have been the same. Remember the beach, Northwest Park, breaking down in Groton, and the Prom. Thank you to Tek for letting me share your locker and hang out in your room, and especially for being a great best friend for 18 years and running. It's been a great couple of years in SWHS. I can't wait to see what lies ahead.

Jackie King

And we've been walking in circles, telling ourselves this is how it's supposed to unfurl. When really this is it. Yet we've been wasting away, chasing our habits, we've beaten a path so numb to us now. And we're supposed to arrive at some conclusion and some new location. Please, just see yourselves out of the revolving door, upon making your grand exit. Good bye and good love. J.S. "remember what the door mouse said: feed your head." (to Val and Mad: stay who you are and rock on my beauties.)

Who knew that these four years would go by so quickly? I look back on the years and I have full confidence that these four years are a part of my life I will never forget. I will never forget the people, the stories, the drama, or the laughs. I reminisce and I realize that I would have never wanted to be in the company of anyone else but these people. And these people that are going to leave me as friends will become teachers, doctors, engineers, or just the one that can put a smile on everybody's face. Whoever they become, I know that they have left their unique footprints in my heart. My family, my friends, my teachers, they know who they are, and they will forever remain with me in their special ways. The ways they made me smile, laugh, struggle, and succeed. These four years have come to an end, but the memories I will cherish forever.

Where did these past four years of my life go? It is crazy to think that my journey through high school is coming to an end. I would like to thank everyone who has helped me along the way; I really appreciate all of your time and effort. I would like to thank weekends for getting me through each year, giving me something to look forward to every Monday morning. With many memories in mind it is going to be different without all my boys and girls who I've grown up with. Flour is a brotherhood and Emilee is my go-to girl. The past four years have been incredible. Too many memories to name. I'll never forget enjoying E-Dub scenery, and arriving in Shakytown with the guys. Lax is the bomb. Mom and Dad-Thank you for having me..without you I would never be given the opportunities that have come my way. Peace.

Well it's getting to that time of year; I think it's clear we are ready to go on steady with our lives. Taking risky dives in our days that last, hoping to get past frowns and tears our peers will bring when the last bell rings. With sadness on our way, I think it's fair to say, don't worry, none of us are in a hurry, so let's live it up, hold up your cup, and give a toast, to all the nights on the coast, how bright stars light the dark, hopefully I left my mark in all your hearts. My brothers, I wouldn't be able to find others, going to the lake with my boy Jake, relaxing and waxing our boards. Math is a hard path, but I sat next to Whit and loved every bit. Seeing shows was the best, who could forget our band Mest. Many things are to come, some won't leave the mind, so find a person to share what you care about, watch out for me, I'll be coming from a mile and I'll always give a smile.

I couldn't imagine sharing it with anybody else: Anna, Stef, Emily, Britt, Steph, Jenna, Blaize, Jackie, Nicki, Dayna, Eve, Krystia, and all the boys, my love goes out to you. We've done it all: DMB, beach trips, bonfires, prom, mudsliding, Six Flags, Homecoming, and every random adventure possible. I am so glad that I moved back here to South Windsor and now have the opportunity to graduate with you amazing people. To all of my friends, and you know who you are, I love you all very much and cannot imagine how I survived those two years in FL without seeing any of you. I am so happy to have gotten the chance to get close to all of you again, because being around each and every one of you has made my time at this school worthwhile. It breaks my heart to think that soon we will all be going our separate ways, but I'll always have these incredible memories to keep me company, and they will forever hold a place in my heart. ## Shawn Perry

"Fine...the bus"

"Change." When I came here I was just your everyday lay-about who just tried to get by in school and everything else. I cared about what others thought of me and allowed that fact to effect who I was. But I changed; through my time here I became driven to do my best in school and all other endeavors I partook in. I stopped caring about what others thought and focused on just being Shawn Perry. Nevertheless, I will never forget the times I've had and the people I've known here. The memories: like my times on the tennis team, assorted clubs, and the school plays. My friends Kevin K, Chris, Joe, Aaron, John Michael, Kevin P and all the rest that I'm too lazy to type. I will never forget you. I am very happy to be the person I am today, so now I shall end this with "thank you."

Megan Peterson

"In a thousand years and a thousand tears I'll come finding my original crew." I love you guys. Thanks for it all.

Timothy Pierce

"The years go by, the time it does fly every single second is a moment in time that passes oh, so quick and it seems like nothing but when you're looking back, well it amounts to everything. I got myself, I got my friends, I got my little family but that's not where it ends, this song goes out to you, it goes out to everyone it's in the name of honesty because life has just begun." It's been tough these four years of school and drama. Things have made it better: Bonfires, Car meets, Music, Snow and Skateboarding, Snowmobiling, Area666, summer 2005, pool hopping, concerts both local and mainstream, Basement bunch, The Clique, Family and my best friends. To my underclassmen friends, good luck and to that one girl that's had my heart all year, I'll be here for you when you need me. Goodbye SWHS.

These past four years have been so hectic: with Mimi's claim of being my first friend, to our days as seniors laying around the beach. After all the club meetings, and hanging out after school we've finally made it. Sam- still deaf or blind. Christine- study hall last year was great. Lucian- only you could sing "Turning Japanese". Jon- "Africa" great laughs we've had together. Mimi- going to Hooters. Rob- with almost running me over with your truck. Kevin- times getting pulled over, Aaron- great times over your house. Krista- with your "where do you put the cd in?". Sara- singing in the van, were among the highlights. I'd also like to thank any friends I didn't put here, and my family for helping me these past years.

Vanessa Sanchez

Well, senior year has finally come. Amanda or as I like to call you, Melvin. Why are we best friends? Perhaps it's because we enjoy coming up with new scripts for Lifetime Movies. Maybe it's because of our comic convention phone conversations. Whatever the reason, thanks for being there for me and I'm totally in love with you. My dear Rosemary, I love that we can spend hours discussing politics, planning our backpacking trips through Europe, or even going to Barnes and Noble just to listen to music. You are the most genuine person I have ever met and I love you so much. Thanks to my parents for your constant love and support, my brother, Scott, for always being there for me, and Brooke for being the greatest sister and my number one friend for life.

Ted, Yags, we'll beat the odds eventually, we've been crazy. "American Pie" in the car was priceless, but oh so expensive. Fisher, too many "eye contacts" to count. Hornat, thank God for the lake, that's for sure. Leslie, "Let's go Rounce!" That's embarrassing. Megan, we've had a lot of fun. Rene, what can I say? You've always been there for me through thick and thin, and it means the world to me. Thank you Mom, Dad, Amma for being so supportive. Scott for leading the way. Good luck to all of you and thanks for the experiences. So long, SWHS.

It's the beginning of the end or is it the end of the beginning? Who knows? These past four years have flown by so quickly, it seemed like only yesterday I was stepping into this school about to turn over a new leaf, now I'm at the end of this chapter and ready to start the next. These past years wouldn't have been so memorable without the help of my friends and family. They've supported me in everything I've done and told me to strive to be the best. Hmmm, four years are done with and suffice to say, it's about time. Not that this school has provided enough memories of the good times, in fact it's quite the opposite. From the myriad of stories of freshman earth science to becoming Invalid-Man to, well, all the other good times slacking off, there are a few good memories of this school. Then again, there was all the other things that I had to deal with during these four years of high school. But, why waste space writing about them since we all know what they are? Anyways, to those I know, let's remember the good times and let us make fun of the bad times. For what's the point of remembering all the stupid things that have happened in this school if you don't make fun of it?

Joe Walsh

The past four years have treated me very well. I have made many memories with my friends and family that I will never forget. You all know who you are. I'll spare the inside jokes that no one else gets. The time I have spent here has been the best of my life. I wouldn't change anything. No regrets.

I can't believe I'm going to graduate high school this year. These past four years have flown by too fast. What am I going to do without you guys? Thank you to my parents for never making me feel like my best wasn't enough. I can always count on you. Thank you to my big sister for not ignoring me in the hallways and for being nice to me in Geology. You've always looked out for me. Mrs. Raccio you're my favorite teacher thank you for putting up with me for the last two years. My high school experience has been quite a ride but would not have been as memorable if it weren't for Kelly. You've been the greatest friend anyone could ask for. You gave me a life. To everyone else you've all impacted my life and I will never forget you. Don't forget that high school is not the end it's only the beginning. See you on the other side.

I wish you the best of luck, stay in touch. B-Will - I'm so much cooler than you are. Football guys - I wish you all the best of luck, you're gonna need it. Ryan - Sorry about the candle. Katie - Where do I start? I never dreamed, and still don't, everything you've been to me. To my family - Thank you for everything you've done over the years, it's been a blast. Chris - Keep the Norweigan pride alive. All the other meatheads leaving this year - Obrien, Chris, Willie, Snow, Johnny G, Soup, Vanessa, and Carl - Keep it real.

These four years have been years I'll never forget. Now that high school is coming to an end for me I remember all the great things I'm going to miss. All the hilarious times during soccer and lacrosse with some of my best friends. My friends are the coolest people I know. Half the time we just would hang out and play poker. Most of the time I'd lose my money but it was always a great time with my best friends Mike, Josh, Kyle and the others. Won't forget how much money I've wasted at Sun Sun. I won't forget all the times I forcibly would make Mindy invite me over her house. Van Lan I won't forget your amazing story before the beach. "Vanessa! Get yo bag." Can't forget about Korn either and his daily juggling acts on top of the tables outside at lunch. The past four years have been amazing and I'll never forget all the great times I've had.

How do you explain the best four years of your life in 150 words? For me the answer is friends. You guys were always there for me throughout high school and were always good for some crazy memories and some good laughs. Shnookums, Bolduc, Bourbon, Lenard, Planters, Deeser, and all the rest never forget the memories that were made. From trips to the lake, Vermont, G-bury, and the unforgettable nature runs to all of the unforgettable nights: prom, "night of kings," the "O," Deese's birthday, backyard boarding, and of course the decent of Everest. I would have not chosen anyone else to spend those times with. Kev, I am sorry for the phone calls, she was crazy anyways. Bolduc, Dumb and Dumberer, where it all began. Thank you guys for everything. Thanks to Mom and Amy, I love you both and thanks for being there for me.

Mindy Gold

Dear Mindy,
We love you and are so proud of you... yet the depth of our emotions and pride seems lost in those simple words. You are so special! You have been an independent soul from the day you were born. When you were young that trait was tough on your parents...but as you have grown, it's obvious you knew what you wanted and were mature beyond many your age. You have always stuck by what you feel is right and not what is always popular. You care deeply for others which is evident by the lasting friendships you have formed with a terrific group of friends. I know you have grown into a young woman that has a wonderful spirit, great character, intellect and compassion. With your fierce sense of independence you will reach for the stars and actually obtain all you desire. Never change... just continue to grow and believe in yourself! May you be blessed with all you desire!
Congratulations on your Graduation!
With Love!

Marissa Lynn Wolff

Marissa,

It seems like it was yesterday when you started school. These past 18 years have gone by very fast. You have grown into a beautiful, talented, and dedicated individual in all that you choose to do. We are very proud of the person you have become. Always remember how much we love you. Seek to follow your dreams and aspirations wherever they may take you.

Please think about this quote by C. Hoppe: "I hope that my achievements in life shall be these that I have fought for what was right and fair, that I will have risked for that which mattered, and that I will have given help to those who are in need, that I will have left the earth a better place for what I've done and who I've been."

All our love,
Mom, Dad and Jared

Bethany Wright
